Cathedral Information

The parish executive has confirmed that the new provincial COVID-19 restrictions regarding restricted numbers for gatherings do not apply to churches. Based on this, the cathedral will continue to be open to the public for Vesper services on Saturdays at 5:00 pm and Divine Liturgy on Sundays at 10:00 am. The following safety precautions are in place due to COVID-19:

- Masks are mandatory
- When coming to venerate the icon and receive prosfora, please wear your masks and remember physical distancing
- For contact tracing purposes everyone who attends the liturgy in person will be required to sign in
- Confession and holy communion are not available at this time
- If you cannot attend in person, the Divine Liturgy is being livestreamed on the Cathedral Facebook page and on the Cathedral YouTube channel every Sunday morning
- Vesper services are not being livestreamed
- You may request that Fr. Gene add the names of anyone you would like mentioned in the prayers during these services by completing the prayer request form on our website: <https://htuomc.org/prayerrequests>

Parking Lot Safety

The parish executive has hired Paladin Security to patrol the parking lot during the liturgy every Sunday in order to try to prevent car break-ins. We encourage you to park on Main Street in front of the church, if possible. If you do park in the lot around the church try to park close to Main Street and avoid the parking spots behind the church.

Please do not leave anything of value in your car and we would strongly recommend (if you are comfortable with this), that you leave your cars unlocked when you are parked at the church.

We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience these unfortunate incidents have caused and we hope these new security measures will make a difference.

Apostle Quadratus of the Seventy

Commemorated on October 4

Saint Quadratus, Apostle of the Seventy preached the Word of God at Athens and at Magnesia (eastern peninsula of Thessaly), and was Bishop of Athens. His biographer called him “a morning star” among the clouds of paganism. He converted many pagans to the true faith in Christ the Savior, and his preaching aroused the hatred of the pagans. Once, an angry mob fell upon the saint to pelt him with stones. Preserved by God, Saint Quadratus remained alive, and they threw him into prison, where he died of starvation. His holy body was buried in Magnesia.

In the year 126, Saint Quadratus wrote an Apologia in defence of Christianity. Presented to the emperor Hadrian (117-138), the Apologia affected the persecution of Christians, since the emperor issued a decree saying that no one should be convicted without just cause. This Apologia was known to the historian Eusebius in the fourth century. At the present time, only part of this Apologia survives, quoted by Eusebius: “The deeds of our Savior were always witnessed, because they were true. His healings and raising people from the dead were visible not only when they were healed and raised, but always. They lived not only during the existence of the Savior upon the earth, but they also remained alive long after His departure. Some, indeed, have survived to our own time.
